

COVID-19 HR Recommendations: Hospital Employee Sick Pay

July 7, 2020

From the period of April 4, 2020, up until June 30, 2020, Ontario Health issued COVID-19 HR Recommendations: Hospital Employee Sick Pay related to temporary paid sick time for hospital employees who were absent from work due to COVID-19 related illness.

These recommendations have expired. As of June 30, 2020, at midnight, hospitals should follow and apply normative hospital sick pay policies and/or collective agreement provisions.

Adapted approaches may be required to address unique, organizational or other exceptional circumstances and conditions.
