

Quality Award 2023

Criteria Checklist for Evaluation of Nomination

Name of initiative, project, or program:

Year initiative was implemented:

Criteria	Score					Comments
1. Quality Dimension The Quality and Innovation Awards defines and measures quality based on the Institute of Medicine's 6 quality dimensions. Does the initiative effectively address one or more of the quality dimensions used in the framework?	0	1	2	3	4
2. Impact on patients Is there evidence that the initiative is meaningful from a patient's point of view?	0	1	2	3	4
3. Impact on resources and processes Is there evidence of the impact of the initiative on resources and processes?	0	1	2	3	4
4. Value for money Is the initiative cost-effective? Is there an economic benefit apparent in a reduction of cost and money spent while maintaining quality of care?	0	1	2	3	4
5. Sustainability Is the initiative sustainable and well disseminated throughout the organization? Are there tools and strategies to facilitate the sustainability of the initiative? Are	0	1	2	3	4

Criteria	Score					Comments
there champions of the initiative throughout the organization?
6. Scalability Is this initiative capable of being scaled up to benefit stakeholders and/or healthcare processes?	0	1	2	3	4
7. Overall rating of initiative Overall, how would you rate this initiative to improve the quality of patient care?	0	1	2	3	4
Final Comments:
Total Score (out of 28):          						